Though most people think of "Trash Day" as the day of the week on which their garbage is collected, many of us place our refuse on the curb the night before. But how early is too early to put out the trash?

Well, lets first go over what the City allows, according to City Code, garbage shall not be stored outside for more than 48 hours.

Trash Pick up is early so please have yours set out by 7am on your pick-up date.
